- AI-powered styling and recommendations;
- Virtual or AI-assisted try-on;
- Promotions, vouchers and discounts;
- User accounts and profiles; and
- Other lifestyle and commerce-related features introduced from time to time.

The availability of any particular feature, product, vendor or service may change from time to time.

2. ELIGIBILITY

By using Kovva, you confirm that:

- You are legally capable of entering into an agreement under applicable law;
- The information you provide is accurate and up to date;
- You will maintain the security of your account; and

- You will use the Platform only for lawful purposes.

Where applicable, certain features or transactions may have additional age or verification requirements.

If you use Kovva on behalf of a business or organisation, you confirm that you have authority to bind that organisation to this Agreement.

3. YOUR KOVVA ACCOUNT

Some Kovva features require an account.

You are responsible for:

- Keeping your login credentials confidential;
- Providing accurate account information;
- Updating information when it changes;
- Preventing unauthorised access to your account; and
- Activities carried out through your account, except where unauthorised use results from circumstances outside your reasonable control.

You should notify Kovva promptly if you believe your account has been compromised.

Kovva may suspend or restrict an account where we reasonably believe that it has been used fraudulently, unlawfully, abusively or in violation of this Agreement.

4. PRODUCTS AND PRODUCT INFORMATION

Product information may include:

- Product name;
- Images;
- Description;
- Available sizes or variants;
- Price;
- Availability;

Colours and appearance may vary between devices and actual products.

Product availability may change at any time.

Where a product becomes unavailable after an order has been placed, Kovva may contact you regarding the order and, where appropriate, provide a refund or other available remedy.

5. PRICES

Prices displayed on Kovva are generally stated in Nigerian Naira unless otherwise indicated.

Prices may change from time to time.

A price change will not affect an order that has already been successfully accepted and paid for, except where an obvious pricing or technical error has occurred.

Where there is an obvious pricing error, Kovva may contact you before fulfilling the order and provide you with the option to proceed at the correct price or cancel the affected order.

Where applicable, delivery fees, taxes, duties or other charges will be disclosed before you complete payment.

6. ORDERS

Placing an order constitutes a request to purchase the selected product.

An order is not necessarily accepted merely because you have submitted it.

Kovva may decline, cancel or limit an order where:

- The product is unavailable;
- There is an obvious pricing or listing error;
- Fraud or unauthorised activity is suspected;
- Payment has not been successfully received;
- The order violates applicable law or this Agreement;
- A vendor or supplier cannot fulfil the order; or
- Circumstances outside Kovva's reasonable control prevent fulfilment.

Where Kovva cancels an order after payment has been received, the applicable amount will be refunded in accordance with the Refund & Return Policy.

7. PAYMENT

Payments may be processed through third-party payment providers made available by Kovva.

You agree to provide accurate payment and billing information.

Where payments are processed by an independent payment provider, Kovva may not have access to your complete card details.

Your payment provider may apply additional terms, fees or security requirements.

Kovva may require additional verification for transactions where reasonably necessary to prevent fraud, comply with applicable law or protect users and the Platform.

8. DELIVERY

Kovva may offer different delivery arrangements depending on the product, seller, supplier, location and fulfilment method.

Estimated delivery periods displayed on the Platform are estimates and are not necessarily guaranteed delivery dates.

Products sourced internationally may require longer delivery periods than products fulfilled locally.

Delivery may be affected by:

- Courier delays;
- Customs or import processes;
- Supplier delays;
- Incorrect delivery information;
- Weather or logistical disruptions;
- Public emergencies; or
- Other circumstances outside Kovva's reasonable control.

You are responsible for providing an accurate delivery address and contact information.

9. RETURNS, REFUNDS AND CANCELLATIONS

Returns, refunds and cancellations are governed by Kovva's Refund & Return Policy.

Nothing in this Agreement is intended to remove or restrict any consumer right that cannot lawfully be excluded under applicable Nigerian law.

Where goods are defective, unsafe, materially different from their description, or otherwise fail to meet applicable legal requirements, applicable remedies will be determined in accordance with Nigerian law and Kovva's applicable policies.

10. THIRD-PARTY SELLERS AND SUPPLIERS

Some products available through Kovva may be supplied by third-party vendors, suppliers or commercial partners.

Where applicable, Kovva may facilitate the transaction, payment, communication, fulfilment or delivery process.

Third-party sellers and suppliers are responsible for complying with applicable laws and Kovva's seller requirements, including requirements relating to product descriptions, authenticity, availability and fulfilment.

Kovva may remove, restrict or suspend products or sellers that do not meet our requirements.

Nothing in this Agreement limits applicable consumer rights.

Kovva may remove or restrict User Content that we reasonably believe violates this Agreement, applicable law or our Community Guidelines.

12. CREATOR CONTENT AND REWARDS

Kovva may allow eligible users or creators to publish content containing or linking to products available through the Platform.

Where Kovva operates a creator reward or commission programme, eligibility, calculation, payment and other requirements will be governed by the applicable Creator Terms or programme rules.

Creators must not manipulate purchases, clicks, engagement, referrals or other activity to obtain rewards fraudulently.

Kovva may withhold or reverse rewards associated with fraudulent, cancelled, refunded or otherwise ineligible transactions.

You remain responsible for reviewing product information before making a purchase.

Specific promotional terms displayed with a promotion will apply where they differ from these general Terms.

15. WALLET AND PLATFORM BALANCES

Where Kovva provides a wallet, balance, credit, reward balance or similar feature, additional terms may apply.

Funds or balances made available through such features may be subject to identity verification, transaction limits, withdrawal requirements, fraud-prevention measures and applicable regulatory requirements.

Kovva may suspend transactions or withdrawals where reasonably necessary to investigate suspected fraud, comply with legal obligations or protect the Platform and its users.

Promotional credits, vouchers or non-cash rewards are not withdrawable cash unless expressly stated otherwise.

Nothing in this Agreement is intended to exclude or restrict liability where doing so would be unlawful.

22. INDEMNITY

To the extent permitted by applicable law, you agree to be responsible for losses, claims, liabilities or reasonable expenses arising from your unlawful use of Kovva, violation of this Agreement, or infringement of another person's rights.

This clause does not apply to the extent that the relevant loss was caused by Kovva's own unlawful conduct or liability that cannot legally be transferred to you.

23. CHANGES TO THESE TERMS

Kovva may update this Agreement from time to time.

Where material changes are made, Kovva may provide notice through the Platform or other reasonable means.

The updated Agreement will become effective on the date stated in the updated Agreement.

Your continued use of Kovva after the effective date constitutes acceptance of the updated Agreement to the extent permitted by applicable law.
